I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Special Needs Grant Program was established under the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A: 72H-4 to assist New Jersey college students who are visually impaired, deaf and hard of hearing, or who have learning disabilities. The statute charges the Commission on Higher Education with several activities including, but not limited to, entering into agreements with institutions and organizations to establish regional centers, provide support services for special needs students, and fostering awareness of disabilities through seminars, presentations, and other activities.

In FY 2000, eight regional centers received funding from the Commission on Higher Education. The five regional centers serving students with learning disabilities are located at Cumberland County College, Fairleigh Dickinson University, Middlesex County College, Ocean County College, and New Jersey City University. These centers provided clinical diagnosis and evaluations, instructional programs to develop compensatory strategies for learning, and other direct student support aids and specialized instruction. These centers also serve as resources for technical assistance, staff development, and diagnostic clinics for other New Jersey colleges and universities.

Two of the regional centers serve deaf and hard of hearing students (Bergen Community College and Camden County College). These two centers offer an array of necessary in-class assistance and services, such as interpreters, note takers, C-Print, and tutors, to offset hearing losses. Services are provided through both college level and pre-college level programs. The centers also provide communication training, counseling, basic skills instruction, and pre-vocational skills development.

In addition, the program supports a statewide adaptive technology center, which is located at The College of New Jersey. The center purchases materials and equipment that can be loaned to colleges and universities, giving the institutions an opportunity to try adaptive technology before they purchase. The adaptive technology center also holds workshops for faculty and staff and acts as a clearinghouse for information exchange.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

In November 1998, the Commission released both targeted and competitive Requests for Proposal (RFP) for FY 2000. The new RFP incorporated a five-year funding cycle so that institutions need not reapply every year. Contracts between the institutions and the Commission on Higher Education (CHE), provide specific guidelines and requirements for each project. Funds are released to each institution according to a schedule based on the institution’s submission of required reports.

I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Education of Language Minority Students (ELMS) Grant Program provides funds for the implementation of educational services to enhance the instruction, learning, and academic achievement of language minority students (LMS) who are New Jersey residents and are enrolled or plan to enroll in academic credit-bearing course work leading to a degree or certificate at in-state colleges and universities.

Projects funded are highly focused, innovative, locally designed projects to develop, expand, or enhance instructional programs and/or services for language minority students. These programs should not be dependent upon a grant to sustain them on a long-term basis; instead, institutions are expected from the outset to absorb the cost of the program.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

In November 1998 a new Request for Proposals (RFP) was released for FY 2000. The new RFP incorporated a two-year funding cycle. Contracts between the institutions and the Commission on Higher Education provide specific guidelines and requirements for each project. Funds are released to each institution according to a schedule based on the institution’s submission of required reports.

For FY 2001 the state legislators approved an increase in the grant appropriations. To distribute the additional funds, the Commission issued a special one-year competitive RFP. The funds were used to establish a computer/multimedia laboratory.

COMMISSION ON HIGHER EDUCATION

STATE MATCHING FUNDS FOR BIOMEDICAL AND OTHER TECHNOLOGY RESEARCH

I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The State Matching Funds for Biomedical And Other Technology Research Program provides $3 million to give a competitive advantage for New Jersey’s research universities and its public colleges and universities by allowing these institutions to compete for federal funds more aggressively. For FY 2001 the program is limited to New Jersey’s six research universities; New Jersey Institute of Technology, Rutgers, The State University, University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, Princeton University, Seton Hall University, and Stevens Institute of Technology.

Grant proposals must request support for research in one of the following programmatic areas: computer science and information technology; physical, life and health sciences; engineering and engineering technology. Use of the funds must be tied to leveraging of federal grant to support institutional research.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

For each federal biomedical or other technology research grant proposal for which an institution seeks matching state funds, the institution must submit to the Commission on Higher Education an abstract of the federal grant proposal along with a completed Eligibility Form for State Matching Funds. Grant proposals must request support in one of the programmatic areas identified above. The amount of the state match for each proposal may not exceed one-half of the requested grant amount and may not exceed the amount of the institutional match for that proposal. Each proposal will be reviewed by the Commission to ensure it meets the guidelines for the program and notify the institution regarding eligibility. The Commission will reserve an institution’s state matching funds within the central fund upon official notification that a grant proposal has been selected for federal funding. Payment of the state matching funds will be made to the institution upon receipt of a copy of the executed grant contract between the federal agency and the institution. For each grant proposal that is eligible for state matching funds, the proposing institution is responsible for informing the Commission within one week of notification of the granting agent’s decision. Funds not awarded by the end of fiscal 2001 were returned to Central Pool.

I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Program for Excellence In High Technology Workforce is intended to strengthen programs from entry-level certificates to advanced degrees in four areas: Computer Science and Information Technology; Physical, Life, and Health Sciences; Engineering and Engineering Technology; and Science and Mathematics Teacher Education. This program provides higher education institutions the opportunity to establish or expand a broad-based array of academic and support services in these areas of state priority.

The funding supports the enhancement of existing programs of existing and recognized high quality through projects which align with state economic development goals, with the intent of raising the institution's regional or national prominence. Applicants were asked to identify how the grant funds would improve student learning outcomes, to provide evidence that the targeted program was diverse in nature, reflecting New Jersey's population, to explain how the grant funds would leverage or garner additional external funding, and explain how the enhanced programs would be sustained over time.

No single grant could exceed $2.5 million. No institution could receive more than $5 million. Each grant was a one time award, with no consideration for renewal. Funds could be disbursed over one to three years based on the institution's proposed implementation plan.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

Refer to Request for Proposals (RFP) dated April 12, 2000, issued by the New Jersey Commission on Higher Education. Institutions may submit funding proposals to the Commission. If the proposal is funded, a contract is developed between the institution and the Commission.

E. SPECIAL TESTS AND PROVISIONS

For projects involving multiple institutions, a single college or university must act as the fiscal agent for grant program purposes. The sub-grantee relationship between the fiscal agent and the other institutions must be monitored to ensure that all institutions are in compliance with provisions of the Request for Proposals (RFP), the grant contract, or other applicable statutes and regulations.
I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Program for Improving Minority And Low-Income Student Graduation Rates is an incentive grant program designed to fund programs, utilizing identified, effective strategies for improving the graduation and transfer rates of low-income and/or minority students. The program reflects the Commission’s commitment to promoting policies and programs that remove barriers to students' academic success and enhance institutional achievement of goals and statewide priorities.

Program funds may not be used for pre-college programs and must focus on graduation and transfer rates beyond the first year. While funds may be used to implement strategies that impact on first year students, proposals must extend strategies beyond traditional first year orientation and/or retention programs, focusing on timely transfer or graduation. Low-income students are defined as those falling within the first two tuition aid grant (TAG) cells.

No single grant could exceed $100,000. Each grant is a one time award, with no consideration for renewal. Funds could be disbursed over one to three years based on the institution's proposed implementation plan.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

Refer to Request for Proposals (RFP) dated May 16, 1997, issued by the New Jersey Commission on Higher Education. Institutions may submit funding proposals to the Commission. If the proposal is funded, a contract is developed between the institution and the Commission.

I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Minority Faculty Advancement (N.J.S.A. 18A:72F-1 et seq.) and the Minority Undergraduate Fellowship (N.J.S.A. 18A:72M-1 et seq.) programs, begun in 1984 and 1992, respectively, are known collectively as the Minority Academic Career (MAC) program. MAC seeks to increase diversity on New Jersey college and university campuses among both students and faculty in key disciplines where minorities continue to be severely underrepresented.

The program has three components. A graduate component provides support services to program participants (MAC fellows) working towards their doctorates. An incentive hiring component helps institutions recruit and hire minority faculty and administrators. The undergraduate program identifies promising minority students and encourages them to pursue academic careers.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

New Jersey Institute for Collegiate Teaching and Learning (NJICTL): This is the undergraduate component of the MAC program and is administered by Seton Hall University. NJICTL identifies minority undergraduates who are interested in academic careers and provides them with a faculty mentor, and enhanced research experience. Another component of the contract includes a stipend for the participating undergraduate fellows. The stipends are not paid directly to the students from the Commission. The funds are part of the administrative budget provided to Seton Hall.

Graduate Redeemable Loan Program: This component provides redeemable loans to minority graduate students not to exceed $10,000 per year for a maximum of 4 years. This component is in the last stage with only 1 eligible student remaining in the cohort that was previously administered by HESAA.

Incentive Hiring Grants (IHG): This component allows the Commission to partner with institutions by offering educational loan redemption per years of faculty service as part of the compensation package to a prospective (new) faculty member. The purpose of the incentive hiring grant is to facilitate hiring that will lead to greater faculty diversity in key disciplines where African-Americans and Latinos continue to be severely underrepresented. The IHG's are encumbered the year the award is made, however, actual payments may be spread over a period of years.

Doctoral and Dissertation Fellowships: The goal of the Minority Faculty Advancement Program (MAC) to increase the number of minority faculty and administrators with doctorates in certain academic disciplines and to increase the representation of minority faculty and administrators with doctorates at New Jersey colleges and universities. The Commission on Higher education also sponsors a limited number of single-year dissertation fellowships that enable MAC Doctoral fellows at the “all but dissertation” stage to complete their dissertations. Funds are also provided to the institutions to provide for research activities and travel for the fellows as well as their mentors.

I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

This discretionary grant program is funded by the United States Department of Education, Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) #84.334, and by matching contributions from the State of New Jersey and six institutions of higher education (named in the next paragraph). National program regulations are cited in the Federal Register: April 27, 2000 (Volume 65, Number 82), Rules and Regulations, Page 24755-24763. The program is authorized by the 1998 Amendments to the Higher Education Act of 1965, chapter 2 of subpart 2 of part A of title IV (20 U.S.C. 1070a-21 et seq.). The program was funded as a result of a competitive award process during which a proposal was submitted to the U.S. Department of Education and was approved and funded (PR/Award # P334A990576).

Called the NJ GEAR UP State Project, the program sustains projects providing direct academic preparation and college readiness services to low-income students in grades 7-12 in 17 target middle and high schools in New Jersey. As with the federal GEAR UP program, the goal of the NJ GEAR UP State Project is to significantly increase the number of low-income students who are prepared to enter and succeed in postsecondary education. Providing tutoring, academic instruction, mentoring, field trips, counseling, parental involvement activities, test preparation, and college application assistance to the students are four College Bound programs at six New Jersey institutions of higher education: Project SMILE/GEAR UP at Mercer County Community College, CHAMP/GEAR UP at Rowan University, College Bound/GEAR UP at New Jersey City University, and the Consortium for Pre-College Education in Greater Newark, comprised of New Jersey Institute of Technology, Rutgers University-Newark, and the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey. These programs are contractual partners in the project.

The New Jersey Higher Education Student Assistance Authority (HESAA) serves as a key contract partner in the program and provides financial aid workshops to students, guidance counselors, and parents; creates the annual 21st Century Scholar Certificates; and administers the program’s scholarship component. The state pledges a $3,000 federally funded NJ GEAR UP scholarship to students who complete the program and enroll in a New Jersey college or university. These students will also be eligible for participation in the state’s Educational Opportunity Fund (EOF) program, which provides scholarship assistance and support services including a bridge program between high school and the freshman year in college. The New Jersey Department of Education Office of Program Review and Improvement collaborates with the NJ GEAR UP State Project to align GEAR UP curriculum with Whole School Reform models and Core Curriculum Content Standards. Target school principals, teachers, and counselors work with the College Bound/GEAR UP programs to provide services and assist in data collection for program evaluation. Neither DOE nor the target schools are contractual partners.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

The NJ GEAR UP State Project is funded on a 5-year cycle (1999-2004) so that institutions/agencies need not reapply every year. Contracts between the institutions/agencies and the Commission on Higher Education (CHE) provide specific guidelines and requirements for each project. Funds are released to each institution according to a schedule based on the institution’s submission of required reports.

I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Community College Services for Abbott Child Care Teachers is a special project initiated by the Commission on Higher Education in response to a New Jersey Supreme Court ruling in the Abbott v. Burke decision. The ruling requires all lead teachers in three- or four-year-old classrooms in child care centers under contract with an Abbott school district to hold, no later than September 1, 2004, a bachelor's degree and the newly created P-3 teaching license.

A spring 2000 survey by the Department of Human Services revealed that more than 300 (approximately 45%) of those teachers held no college degree, and many had no college experience at all. The Commission recognized that the court ruling created a pressing statewide need for a cadre of properly trained teachers, as well as an enormous challenge for existing child care teachers to acquire the necessary credentials in a short timeline.

Accordingly, the Commission asked the 13 community colleges in counties with Abbott districts to contact the contracted child care centers and identify the nondegreed teachers, enroll any so identified wishing to enroll and otherwise qualified for admission, and provide extended advisement and counseling services and such other special activities as necessary to facilitate the teachers’ timely completion of their associate degrees and transfer to senior institutions for completion of the requisite bachelor’s degree. The colleges were compensated for their efforts based on the number of Abbott teachers served.

I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

In partnership with New Jersey colleges and universities (28 public and 13 independent institutions), the Fund provides access to higher education and support for highly motivated students who exhibit the potential for success, but who come from families/communities disadvantaged by low income and the lack of access to the quality educational preparation necessary to attend college. Through its partnership with participating institutions of higher education, the Fund seeks to maximize educational opportunities for EOF students by providing direct program services designed to promote persistence through degree completion. Accordingly, EOF supports innovative educational initiatives, supplemental instruction, support services, and leadership development activities to improve the student’s chance of academic success. In concert with other sources of student financial assistance, the Fund also attempts to make college affordable for those students who find the costs of higher education an impediment to access and student persistence. Article III provides grants to undergraduate students who are New Jersey residents attending a New Jersey college or university to help meet their educational expenses. Educational expenses may include tuition, fees, room and board, transportation, books, educational supplies, and childcare.

The objective of the graduate EOF program is to increase the number of New Jersey residents from backgrounds of historical poverty participating in graduate and professional study. The academic deficiencies that serve to identify undergraduate students as educationally disadvantaged are not applicable at the graduate level. The program provides the opportunity for New Jersey residents whose undergraduate record reflects the potential for advanced study beyond the baccalaureate degree, and whose economic background reflects a history of poverty. Students who received EOF as undergraduates should be given priority in the awarding of this grant. Article III provides grants to graduate students who are New Jersey residents attending a New Jersey college or university to help meet their educational expenses. Educational expenses may include tuition, fees, room and board, transportation, books, educational supplies, and childcare.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

Each New Jersey institution of higher education must annually submit a request for funding. Allocation recommendations are approved by the EOF Board of Directors based on the level of appropriations received. Contracts between institutions and the EOF Board of Directors are developed, and continued funding is based upon the institution providing the necessary support services to the EOF population.

The bond act included academic capital construction and renovation ($308 million) and expansion of the state's network of advanced technology centers ($42 million). The Higher Education Restructuring Act of 1994 (P.L. 1994, c.48) transferred the functions, powers, and duties of the Board of Higher Education (BHE) under the JEC Bond Act, including the approval of projects, to the Commission on Higher Education (CHE) effective July 1, 1994.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

The $308 million for capital construction and renovation is administered by the CHE as the successor to the former BHE, and the Commission on Science and Technology (CST) administers the $42 million for the advanced technology centers. The funds are allocated by law as follows:

- $80,000,000 for construction of higher education buildings at the State colleges.

- $42,000,000 toward the cost of establishment and construction of an expanded network of advanced technology centers at the state's public and private institutions of higher education.
For the $308 million for capital construction and renovation, contracts for specific projects are developed between institutions and the Department of Higher Education (now CHE). For the $42 million for the advanced technology centers, agreements are developed with the CST.

*At least 20% of these funds must be allocated to projects in the eight southernmost counties of the state: Atlantic, Burlington, Camden, Cape May, Cumberland, Gloucester, Ocean, and Salem.

III. COMPLIANCE REQUIREMENTS AND SUGGESTED AUDIT PROCEDURES

A. TYPES OF SERVICES ALLOWED OR DISALLOWED

Refer to the JEC Bond Act of 1988 (P.L.1988, c.78.). College and University Assistance Act P.L.1979, c.13 (N.J.S.A. 18A: 72B-15 et seq.) are eligible to receive JEC funding. Refer to bills listed in III.A. above for specific projects and eligible JEC bond funding amounts.

C. MATCHING, LEVEL OF EFFORT, AND/OR EARMARKING PROCEDURES

1. Compliance Requirement
   a. For the $308 million for capital construction and renovation, excepting the $45 million for a renovation and rehabilitation fund, the bond act requires a 100% match of bond funds used to construct, improve, or expand facilities at private institutions. Note that this match is for the aggregate amount of bond funds allocated to each private institution’s project or projects. Individual projects may have a less than 100% match if the institutional commitment on other JEC projects exceeds the match requirement by an amount sufficient to provide an aggregate match of 100% or more. An amount of up to 50% match may be required for facilities at public institutions. Refer to appropriations bills listed in III. A. above for institutional matching funds required for specific projects.
   b. For the $42 million for the advanced technology centers, the bond act requires that a 'significant portion' of the center's construction, equipment and operating costs be financed from business, industry, and other non-state sources. Refer to resolutions from the CST for details on specific projects.

2. Suggested Audit Procedures
   a. Review appropriations bills or CST resolutions.
   b. Review proposed budget and institution's internal expenditure report to ensure compliance with applicable matching requirements.

D. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

      CST.

   a. Review contract or agreement.
   b. Review proposed budget and institution's internal expenditure report.

b. Perform any special tests required to ensure compliance with affirmative action, equal employment opportunity, and set-aside goals.
I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Equipment Leasing Fund (ELF) provides an ongoing financing mechanism to support the purchase of scientific, engineering, technical, computer, communications, and instructional equipment at New Jersey's public and private institutions of higher education. The ELF statute provides $100 million for these purchases through the sale of bonds by the New Jersey Educational Facilities Authority (EFA). Each institution is required to pay to the EFA 25% of the principal and interest on the bonds issued to finance the purchase of its equipment. The Higher Education Restructuring Act of 1994 (P.L.1994, c.48) Transferred the functions, powers, and duties of the Board of Higher Education (BHE) under the ELF Act, including the approval of equipment purchase and the allocation of funds, to the Commission on Higher Education (CHE) effective, July 1, 1994.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

Upon approval by the governing board of an institution or an entity authorized to act on their behalf, participating institutions propose equipment purchases to the BHE or, after July 1, 1994, to the CHE to be acquired with the proceeds of ELF bonds. Proposals must be for at least 25 percent of an institution's total allocation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 9A: 14-1.5 or $1,000,000, whichever is less, unless it is for the final portion of its allocation. Refer to N.J.A.C. 9A: 14-1.3. As the original ELF bonds are retired new bonds may be issued with the approval of the State Treasurer, but the total outstanding principal may not exceed $100,000,000, and the term of any bond may not exceed 10 years. The EFA enters into lease agreements with colleges and universities that include institutional payment of 25% of the principal and interest. The EFA then remits these funds to the State Treasurer.

I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Higher Education Facilities Trust Fund (HEFT) was enacted on January 10, 1994 to provide $220 million in capital funds to New Jersey colleges and universities. The HEFT is used to provide grants to institutions for the cost, or a portion of the cost, of the construction, reconstruction, development, extension or improvement of instructional, laboratory, communication and research facilities related to future industry and workforce needs. Capital funds are provided through 15-year bonds issued by the Educational Facilities Authority (EFA), with debt service payments supported through annual appropriations from the net proceeds of the State Lottery Fund.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

The New Jersey Commission on Higher Education, as successor to the Board of Higher Education, approves each grant, based upon application from the governing board of a public or private institution. The State Legislature has 60 days to disapprove a grant through a concurrent resolution; if it does not disapprove the grant, the grant is deemed to be authorized. Administration of funding for approved grants will be the responsibility of the EFA.

I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The purpose of the Higher Education Technology Bond fund is to “develop technology infrastructure within and among New Jersey’s institutions of higher education in order to provide access effectively and efficiently to information, educational opportunities, and workforce training.” Funds made available by the act “may also be used to enhance the connectivity of higher education institutions to libraries and elementary and secondary schools.” As a result of the fund, institutions should be able to implement their technology plans more rapidly, enhancing higher education’s capacity to use video and data telecommunications.

The intent of the fund is to further advance technology, not to reimburse institutions for completed projects. However, the regulations (9A:13-1.5 (b)) allow institutions to use as a match for grant funds any expenditures made after July 1, 1997, provided these expenditures are tied to the project(s) for which the grant funds are used and provided they meet all other regulatory criteria. Similarly, technology infrastructure grant funds may be applied to expenditures made prior to Commission approval of projects provided that those expenditures were made after July 1, 1997.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

Upon approval by its governing board at a duly authorized meeting, an institution of higher education shall apply to the Commission on Higher Education for a grant from the infrastructure fund. An institution’s proposal should be in narrative form, with separate sections addressing the items 1 through 7 and 9 through 13 enumerated in section (a) of N.J.A.C. 9A:13-1.5 (Grant application). Item 8, the itemization of proposed expenditures, shall be listed on form TFUND-01. I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Higher Education Capital Improvement Fund (HECIF) provides grants to New Jersey’s four-year public and private institutions of higher education for the cost, or a portion of the cost, of the renewal, renovation, improvement, expansion, construction and reconstruction of facilities and technology infrastructure. An institution may use up to 5% of a grant within student-support facilities for fire code violations, health-safety code renovations, and other State and federal code-related renovations. If all such renewal and renovation is completed or is accounted for through other funding sources, or if an institution is granted an exemption by the Commission on Higher Education for the purpose of maximizing federal grant fund recoveries or for the purpose of replacing a building when projected renewal and renovation costs exceed the projected cost of replacement, then grant funds may be used for the improvement, expansion, constructions, and reconstruction of instructional, laboratory, communication, and research facilities, or technology infrastructure. The HECIF statute provides $550 million for these projects through the sale of bonds by the New Jersey Educational Facilities Authority (EFA). Public institutions are required to pay to the EFA one-third of the principal and interest on the bonds issued on their behalf and the private institutions must pay an amount equal to one-half of the principal and interest.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

Upon approval by the governing board of a four-year private or public institution of higher education the board shall file an application with the Commission which application shall include a complete description of the project to be financed and an identification of any additional sources of revenue to be used. Only projects that incurred or will incur expenses after July 1, 1999 are eligible for approval provided that the projects meet the requirements of the law and N.J.A.C. 9A:16-1.4 The EFA enters into loan agreements with colleges and universities that include institutional payment of either one-third (public four-year institutions) or one-half (private four-year institutions) of the principal and interest.
