Look for Red Flags

Beware of fraudulent checks in the mail! They may look real, but note discrepancies.

Chances are, if you get a multi-million dollar check you weren't expecting, it's a scam.

A legitimate State check would not have the US President's name on it.

We would never send a check pertaining to the United Nations

There are spelling and punctuation errors present.

If you are unsure if the check is real or not, Do Not cash it. Contact us first.